A vibrant, cartoonish illustration of a carnival or amusement park at night. In the foreground, a large, stylized eye with a wide, toothy grin and yellow pupils looks down from above. Below it, a white rabbit-like character with long ears and a blue bow tie stands on a wooden platform, pointing towards the eye. To the right, a yellow, multi-legged creature with a wide-open mouth full of sharp teeth and a single eye is attached to a Ferris wheel. The Ferris wheel has colorful, glowing lights. In the background, there's a roller coaster track, a small building with a striped awning, and various carnival games and attractions under a dark sky with a crescent moon.
